International Programme in Humanities

VI edition / A.Y. 2020-2021

International Programme in Humanities

The IPH is a one-year programme taught exclusively in English which aims to prepare students by providing a solid multidisciplinary background in Humanities.

It is also the first year of our degrees in History; Cultural Heritage Studies; Studies in Performing Arts and Communication; Foreign Languages and Literature; Philosophy.

Our aim is to investigate the major challenges of life in the contemporary world by developing academic and professional expertises that are positively valued by employers, including critical thinking, analytical and organisational skills.
