

Online workshop

Transformations in plant uses during the Graeco-Roman and Late Antique Egypt

6th June 2022, 10.00-17.30

University of Pisa

<https://meet.google.com/wsn-ctkp-squ>

Information: Riccardo Andreozzi (Ph.D. student)
r.andreozzi2@phd.unipi.it

10.00-10.10 Greetings (Prof. Marilina Betrò, University of Pisa)
10.10-10.30 Introduction (Riccardo Andreozzi, University of Pisa)

10.30-11.10 Ursula Thanheiser (Universität Wien)
Agricultural Innovations During Roman Times in the Dakhleh Oasis

11.10-11.50 Agata Bebel-Nowak (University of Warsaw)
Pulses in Graeco-roman Egypt

11.50-12.10 Break

12.10-12.50 Robert Kade (Freie Universität Berlin)
*Carob-cabbage on the pigeon-bean-tree:
herbal entanglements in Demotic and beyond*

13.00-15.00 Lunch

15.00-15.40 Anne Grons (Philipps-Universität Marburg)
“P. Carlsberg 500: a unique Coptic codex on medicinal plants and their uses

15.40-16.20 Federica De Marco (Università di Bologna)
Medicinal plants in the papyrus texts: Egyptian production and imports

16.20-16.50 Break

16.10-16.50 Maximilian Haars (Philipps-Universität Marburg)
Transplantation and Transformation: Galen on the Egyptian 'Persea', Mimusops laurifolia (Forssk.) Friis

17.00-17.30 Conclusions